MARBELLA WEDDING DESTINATION

Marbella is a 5-star wedding destination.

Luxury, comfort, tradition and modernity wrap this city in a dream environment to celebrate a perfect wedding.

Thanks to its privileged geographic location, Marbella boasts of having a unique microclimate and one of the most beautiful landscapes in the south of Spain. Surrounded by the high Sierra Blanca mountain and washed by the Mediterranean Sea, it is the core of the Western Costa del Sol.

Lots of charms turn Marbella into the ideal place to celebrate your dream wedding, especially its exclusive atmosphere, historic-cultural heritage, temples for different religions, 28 kilometres of lovely beaches, 320 sunny days a year, a beautiful natural environment, 14 wonderful golf courses, 4 marinas, including the world-famous Puerto Banús, luxury hotels and unique places with special charm to celebrate all types of weddings, a wide range of excellent wedding professionals, high-quality health and welfare facilities as well as restaurant services with a rich and varied cuisine, 3-Michelin stars, the most exclusive boutiques in the world and modern shopping centres.

MARBELLA FACTS

Surface area: 116.8 km². With 27.9 kilometres of coast line, and occupying a strip of land measuring a width of 3.5 and 5.5 kilometres which reaches inland to the foothills of the Sierra Blanca mountain.

Location: Marbella is located in the south of Spain, on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, in the autonomous community of Andalusia, it belongs to the province of Málaga. It is situated in the heart of the Costa del Sol.

Latitude: 36° 30' N
Longitude: -4° 53' W
Average altitude: 24 metres above sea level

Population: 141.163 inhabitants (30% approx. are foreigners)

The two main centres of the Marbella municipality are Marbella and San Pedro Alcántara. The rest of the population is dispersed amongst various urbanisations, with Nueva Andalucía y Las Chapas as the main residential areas.

Neighbouring towns: Estepona, Benahavís, Istán, Ojén and Mijas.

Distance from Málaga, regional capital: 57 kilometres.

Communications:

- By road: Mediterráneo A-7 bypass (E-15) and the Costa del Sol AP-7 (toll) motorway.

- By air: The nearest airport is Málaga – Costa del Sol, 48 kilometres away, which can be reached by direct bus from Marbella. Gibraltar airport is approximately 75 kilometres away.

- By train: The nearest station is Fuengirola, 27 kilometres away. The long distance train can be taken from María Zambrano Station in Málaga, 57 kilometres away.

Climate: Marbella enjoys a warm climate with an average annual temperature of 19° C (66°F). The combination of local climatic conditions means that Marbella enjoys a micro-climate, even within the warm climate of the Costa del Sol. These are: the latitude, being located on the side of the Sierra Blanca mountain, the effect of the Gibraltar Strait and the thermoregulatory presence of the sea.

Gastronomy: Marbella is held up as a benchmark in the field of catering due to its 3-michelin starred restaurants and the high concentration of restaurants which exceed 800, and include almost the entire range of regional and international cuisine.
